28TH ANNUAL ARTS AWARD NOMINEE FEISS UNVEILS NEW PRODUCTS FOR 2017

Timeworn Chic and Warm-Gilded Finishes Stand Out in Collection

Skokie, Ill., January 16, 2017—Feiss, which delivers a broad assortment of finely crafted, fashion-forward lighting from traditional to transitional designs, will unveil its new product lines for 2017 at the Lightovation tradeshow, running from January 18-22, at the Dallas Market Center’s Trade Mart, 2100 Stemmons Freeway, showroom TM-4010.

Feiss is also nominated for an ARTS Award in the “Lighting Fixtures” category; the winner will be announced during the annual ARTS Award gala on Friday, January 20.

According to Chief Design Officer Sean Lavin of Feiss parent company Generation Brands, “Feiss is a sophisticated fashion brand, and our customers love our use of artisan design details, timeless silhouettes and natural woods and stones. Warm finishes are trending in lighting this year, and for us, this is reflected in our warm, gilded colors such as copper, brass and bronze.”
